

Vasiliki Bayiokos

Vasiliki Bayiokos was born and raised in Bergen County, NJ.

She is a rising senior at Fairfield University in Fairfield, CT where she is pursuing a degree in Chemistry with minors in Marketing and Politics.

During the school year, you can find Vasiliki in the lab as an undergraduate research student or in the residence halls as a resident assistant.

During her free time, Vasiliki enjoys spending time with family and friends, reading, cooking, traveling, listening to Greek music, and trying all different kinds of cuisines.

This summer she is excited to be interning at Henkel as a Formulations Intern in their Laundry and Home Care area.

Vasiliki hopes to pursue a career around product development in either the food, environmental, or cosmetic industries.
