

PERSIAN ABSTRACTION (2017-present)

In her solo exhibition at Johannes Vogt Gallery (Jan-Feb, 2018). Aphrodite Navab's "ink drawings titled, Persian Abstraction (2017-present), are defined by the artist as private, intimate acts, a visual diary. In her own words the abstracted shapes found in the drawings convey 'a theater of reproduction and rebirth, the absurd, the grotesque, the delicate and ephemeral: of flying phalluses, swimming sperm, floating vulva, erectiles, embryonic embraces, climaxes, and rhapsodies in RNA.'"—Roxana Fabius, curator.

PERSIAN ABSTRACTION (2017-present). Ink on paper. 8" x 10". $500 each. $900 set of 2.
