

Mary Papaschinopoulou, J.D., M.L.E.

Dr. Mary Papaschinopoulou was born in 1968 in Athens, Greece. She studied Law and Economics at the Universities of Athens, Hanover and Hamburg. She holds a doctoral degree in European Law from the University of Hamburg.

From 2000-2015 Dr. Papaschinopoulou has been first the Director of the Hamburg Chamber of Commerce and then of the Association of North German Chambers of Commerce and Industry (CCI) in Brussels. She has been representing to the EU the interests of 650.000 companies (generating 18% of Germany's GDP) in a broad range of regulatory areas, such as Internal Market, Trade, Competition, Maritime Transport & Logistics, Environment, Offshore Oil & Gas, Certification.

During the same time span she has also been the Representative to the EU of the German Business Associations for Africa, Latin America and Asia-Pacific.

For over 20 years now she has been Visiting Lecturer for International Negotiations and EU Public affairs at the Hamburg School of Business Administration, Jacobs University/Bremen, College of Europe/Hamburg, International School of Management ESSEC/Paris, Andrassy University/ Budapest and EUROCHAMBRES Trade Academy.

She is author of 2 books and several articles on EU Law and EU Public Affairs.

Dr. Papaschinopoulou is Founding Partner of MAR-DIPLO P.C. She advises clients on inter-national business development, regulatory and political risk, dispute resolution, claims handling and strategic networks. With her interdisciplinary academic expertise, her blended experience in business, management and advocacy and her global economic diplomacy network, she provides clients with representation worldwide.

She is further the official Representative of the German Asia Pacific Association to the EU and the Hamburg School of Business Administration to the EU.

Fluent in 5 languages, she is a seasoned public speaker and facilitator for effective discussion at international fora.

Dr. Papaschinopoulou is the founder of the Brussels based EUROCHAMBRES Women Network for Leadership and Entrepreneurship. She serves at the Board of ALLILONnet. She is further Member of the German-Greek Association for Legal Professionals, the European Law Association, WISTA Hellas and the Hellenic Institute for Strategic Studies.

Dr. Papaschinopoulou holds a dual citizenship (Greek and German).