

Eleana Morse

Eleana Morse is currently a freshman at New York University. Born in Winchester, England, Eleana grew up in Westchester, New York. She is an English major studying on the Creative Writing track. Eleana sings alto in NYU Chorale, the university's largest choir ensemble.

She participated in her high school theater program for four years and was a member of the Tri-M Music Honor Society. She also volunteered at The Hellenic School at the Greek Orthodox Church of Our Savior in Rye, New York, as a teaching assistant.

In 2018, Eleana was awarded the Three Hierarchs Award of Excellence from the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America for her score on the New York State Regents Exam in Modern Greek.

In the future, Eleana hopes to write stories influenced by Greek culture, history, and mythology. She also hopes to be able to continue performing.
